Distinguished Panel of Judges !! THANK YOU !!

Giuseppa Ball, Northeast Sales Representative of Carson-Dellosa Publishing and recently mother of twins, has been L.L.Weans reliable connection for over 6 years with the popular Carson-Dellosa products. Her helpful insight can be partially due to her previous employment with Learning How educational stores in Maryland as their Store Manager and Buyer.

Kay Fredericks, Creator and Owner of TREND Enterprises and a former Teacher, has been a leader and mentor in the educational supplies industry for over 35 years, as well as an active volunteer in her community with the Minnesota Council of Boy Scouts of America and other organizations.

Joan Imhof, Community Affairs manager of both Future Corps and Community Champions for Newsday, keeps extremely involved with our schools, teachers and students. Over 575 thousand students with Future Corps have improved L.I. and Queens communities and is open to every public and private school from Kindergarten through College.

Jennifer Keegan, Creator and Publisher of the Long Island Kids Directory, is also a devoted Mom knowledgeable about educational products, services and schools. Her magazine helps to inform the L.I. community of this information.

Danielle Zanghi, from the Long Island Radio Group with it's familiar stations like, KJOY and B103, comes from a family of Teachers. This continuing experience has helped her to appreciate and understand the importance of education, educators and the need for various supplies.
